Looking at the 2019s and
2020sREVIEW

Coming from a mix of soils at the base of their estate vineyard and the only red I was able to taste, the 2020 Pinot Noir Dierberg Vineyard is also solid, with a light ruby/purple hue to go with classic Pinot Noir raspberries, forest floor, and earth, as well as some spicy notes. It's textured and medium-bodied, has plenty of fruit, and a great finish.

These Dierberg releases are made by Tyler Thomas and have pure, classy, impeccably made profiles.
